

For Immediate Release
Leila Belcher of LJB Public Relations
leila@ljbpublicrelations.com
(303) 345 - 1805

Whole Truth Solutions Launches New Dia de los Muertos Bath Bar Available to the Public in Late September

Known for their gorgeous bath bars with creative names and simple yet thoughtful packaging, Whole Truth Solutions is at it again and this time with a new Dia de los Muertos bath bar. Inspired by Founder, Teresa Bebla's culture, this bath bar is a haunting fusion of skin nurturing ingredients complete with festive packaging to match. Dia de los Muertos or, the Day of the Dead is a day when friends and family join to remember and pay respect to loved ones passed.

Ingredient Highlights: Organic Evening primrose oil and detoxifying bamboo charcoal are combined with replenishing red reef clay which lends its beautiful deep red hue to this new bar. The Dia de los Muertos bar is finished with a blend of spicy black pepper to evoke the memory, delicate floral lavender to calm the spirit, fresh citrusy lemon to purify the senses and a touch of earthy sandalwood to keep our hearts grounded.

Ingredient List: Organic olive oil, Organic sunflower oil, Organic coconut oil, Organic cocoa butter, Organic Evening Primrose Oil, bamboo charcoal powder, Australian red reef clay, essential oils of black pepper, Lavender, lemon & Sandalwood.

Bath Bars Nature Would Be Proud Of: Every Whole Truth Solutions Bath Bar is perfectly imperfect as each is slightly different in shape from being handmade and hand-cut. Filled with the finest organic oils and butters, then infused with healing herbs, tea blends and other natural elements, these beautiful bars are a product of love and care and certainly ingredients that Mother Nature would be proud of. Created using the cold-process of soap making and then cured for at least four weeks ensures that they are hard and long lasting.

A Couple Proves that True Beauty Comes Naturally

Dismayed by the hundreds of eco-friendly, all natural, bath and body "imposters" on the market, husband and wife team, Teresa and Frank Bebla decided to take action and create a company that could embrace all of those titles, truthfully! Certified in Holistic Nutrition, a Licensed Massage Therapist and currently working on a bachelors' of Science in Holistic Health, Teresa has always had a passion for healthy and holistic living. Therefore, Whole Truth Solutions, is a proud signer of the Campaign for Safe Cosmetics, has taken the Truth in Labeling Pledge and donates a portion of proceeds to the Cancer Prevention Coalition.

Whole Truth Solutions' Bath Bars are Available at www.WholeTruthSolutions.com for $7.00 a Bar and Packaged in 100% Recycled Material